1. INTRODUCTION:

The promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000, as amended, (the “Act”) gives third parties the right to approach private bodies to request information held by them, which is required in the exercise and/or protection of any rights.

On request, the private body may be obliged to release such information unless the Act expressly states that the records containing such information may or must not be released.

This manual informs requestors of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act, and further incorporates or addresses the requirements of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (“POPIA”)

We conduct our business in terms of the:

Companies Act, The Broadcasting Act 4 of 1999, the guidelines of The Independent Communications Authority of South Africa and other relevant legislation.
